Cooling centers are open

A heat advisory is in effect from Tuesday to Thursday. Cooling centers are open from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. at public libraries and senior centers across Sample City. Entry is free. No ID is required. Service animals are welcome.

Stay safe in the heat

- Drink water often, even if you are not thirsty.
- Check on older neighbors and people who live alone.
- Never leave children or pets in a parked car.
- Call 911 if someone has hot, dry skin, confusion, or faints.

Find the nearest cooling center at samplecity.example/cool or call the Sample City help line. Help is available in Chinese and other languages.
